This year, we are bringing awareness to the Aruna Project in support of its mission - creating lifelong freedom for victims and survivors of human trafficking in Ohio and South Asia

Aruna

Funds to support this amazing mission are raised from donations, runs & events, and a portion of proceeds for the purchase of products on the website.

WE CANNOT LOOK AWAY.

Human trafficking leaves lasting psychiatric scars.

- PTSD
- Depression
- Dissociation
- Complex Trauma

Freedom is not just physical escape. It is psychological restoration.

On Saturday, April 18th, beginning at 6:30 p.m., as part of Ohio Psychiatric Physicians Association's Gala, we will shine a light on the Aruna Project and their work creating sustainable employment for women rebuilding their lives.

For her freedom.

The Ohio founded Aruna Project partners with women escaping human trafficking in South Asia and Ohio by providing safe, dignified employment and a path toward sustainable freedom.

For her freedom.

Join us and register today!

This is advocacy.
This is public health.
This is psychiatry in action.
